

THE FRENCH ATELIER — IMMERSION TRACK

PRESENTED BY FRANCE'S #1 PRIVATE LEARNING INSTITUTE

FA Beginner

A1.1 → A1.2 · 20 Units

NORMANDY → PARIS

FA Beginner

For learners with some basic foundations, or graduates of FA Foundation. By the end of this module, learners can interact in simple everyday situations with a degree of autonomy: locating themselves, talking about family and daily life, discussing the weather, expressing preferences, and completing a market or museum outing.

FA Beginner follows a route from the Normandy coast to Paris. The first week explores the seaside towns of the Normandy Riviera: the Belle Époque promenades of Cabourg, the medieval streets and half-timbered houses of Rouen, the port of Honfleur where Samuel de Champlain set sail for Québec, the elegant boardwalks of Deauville, and the dramatic chalk cliffs of Étretat immortalised by Monet and Maupassant. The second week moves to Paris and Versailles: the Palace of Versailles, the Place de la Contrescarpe for Bastille Day, the Jardin des Plantes, the quays of the Seine, the Place des Vosges, the Musée Carnavalet, a Marais café, the Cinémaèque, the Train Bleu at the Gare de Lyon, and the Marché d'Aligre. Language and landscape are inseparable: every speech act emerges from a real place, a real encounter, a real moment of French life.

UNIT BY UNIT

01 Se repérer : demander / indiquer une direction simple

Ask for and give simple directions using pardon, où est... s'il vous plaît ? and vous tournez à gauche / à droite. Understand short responses (tout droit, à 5 minutes à pied).

02 Se présenter : profession, nationalité & tour de parole

Introduce yourself beyond the basics: say your profession with je suis + métier, your nationality, and ask tu fais quoi ?. Practice a structured 6-turn mini-dialogue.

03 Dire où on est : se situer en temps réel

Locate yourself using je suis là, devant..., juste en face de..., and c'est à côté de.... Practice a short clarification exchange.

04 Dire d'où on vient / où on habite + relancer

Use je viens de... and j'habite à... to talk about origin and home, ask back (et toi ?), and add detail with neighbourhood references.

05 Parler de sa famille + âge (avoir)

Talk about family using avoir: say your age (j'ai ... ans), mention siblings, parents, and children. Exchange at least 3 pieces of family information.

06 Saluer + prendre des nouvelles + clôturer (tu / vous)

Use bonjour / bonsoir, ask ça va ?, and respond naturally. Master the tu / vous distinction in context and close the exchange with à bientôt.

07 Demander poliment / s'excuser + réparer

Use polite formulas (excusez-moi, est-ce que vous pouvez m'aider ?) and repair strategies (vous pouvez répéter ? / parler plus lentement ?). Practice closing with désolé·e / ce n'est pas grave.

08 Localiser : dire où est... (c'est / il y a)

Use c'est and il y a to describe location: give a street, a number, and distances (près d'ici / loin). Practice a guided ask-and-answer interaction.

09 Décrire ce qu'on voit + donner un avis simple

Describe three elements using c'est un/une..., il y a..., je vois... and express a simple opinion (j'aime bien / je n'aime pas). Ask et toi, tu en penses quoi ?.

10 Fixer une date / heure + parler de projets (futur proche)

Give the date and day, talk about plans using demain, je vais... and cette semaine, je vais..., and agree on a meeting time. Introduce the near future tense.

11 Proposer une activité (14 juillet) + se mettre d'accord

Suggest Bastille Day activities (on va voir le feu d'artifice / on va au bal), negotiate a time, and confirm with ça te va ?. Discover the history and traditions of France's national holiday.

12 Décrire ses routines + négation utile

Talk about daily routine with reflexive verbs (je me lève à...) and negate habits (je ne travaille pas le week-end / je ne mange pas le matin). Produce at least 4 routine statements and 2 negations.

13 Parler de la météo + réagir

Ask and answer about the weather using il fait beau / froid / chaud, il pleut / il neige / il y a du vent, and predict with demain, il va faire...

14 Choisir / proposer une activité selon la météo

Based on the weather, suggest two activities (on va au parc / au cinéma / au château), invite someone (tu veux venir ?), accept or decline, and fix a time.

15 Parler d'activités (verbes en -ER) + organiser une sortie

Use common -er verbs to describe leisure activities, plan a museum or expo outing (on prend des billets ? / on y va comment ? / en métro), and arrange a meeting point.

16 Poser des questions avec « est-ce que » + mini-interview

Form questions with est-ce que (est-ce que tu aimes... ? / est-ce que c'est ouvert ?) and conduct a short 5-question interview. Express degrees of opinion from j'aime beaucoup to je déteste.

17 Poser des questions (mots interrogatifs) + relancer

Use question words qui, où, quand, pourquoi, comment to ask and answer in a flowing conversation. Practice tu peux répéter ? as a repair strategy. Introduce a 50%-guided spoken monologue.

18 Parler de ce qu'on mange / boit + préférences

Discuss food and drink habits using je mange..., je bois..., j'aime... parce que c'est bon, and offer or decline with tu en veux ? / oui, volontiers !. Discover French meal culture and typical dishes.

19 Acheter au marché : quantités + articles partitifs

Buy produce at a French market using quantities (un kilo de..., deux cents grammes de...) and partitive articles. Respond to vous en voulez combien ? and complete a full market exchange. Practice with an 80%-guided spoken monologue.

20 Parler de son expérience + dire au revoir (clôture FA1)

Give a free 2–3 minute spoken account of your stay using at least 5 different speech acts from FA1 — directions, family, weather, food, outings — and close warmly (tu vas me manquer ! / je vais revenir !). No script provided: a true production milestone.
