FA Foundation

Designed for complete beginners with no prior knowledge of French. By the end of this module, learners can survive in French in everyday travel situations: asking for directions, placing an order, handling a communication breakdown, paying, and exchanging basic personal information.

FA Foundation takes place entirely in Paris over a long weekend. Each unit is anchored in a real Parisian landmark: the Eiffel Tower and the Champ-de-Mars, a bakery in the 16th arrondissement, a classic café near the Alma bridge, the legendary Bouillon Chartier, the Palais-Royal gardens, the Tuileries, the Pont des Arts, the Panthéon, the Jardin du Luxembourg, Shakespeare & Co, the Coulée Verte, the Bastille, Montmartre and the Place du Tertre, the Canal Saint-Martin. French is learned where it is lived — in the street, at the counter, in the queue, on the quay.
