LSF Beginner

For graduates of LSF Foundation, or learners with basic survival French. LSF Beginner focuses on the practical situations of daily life in France: shopping, getting around, eating out, describing your home, talking about your routine, and expressing preferences. By the end of this module, learners can handle these situations without a script and respond to simple unexpected prompts.

What your course includes

- 20 live lessons of 85 minutes each, broadcast live from France
- Small Zoom groups of 8–10 learners for maximum speaking time
- Native, certified French teachers, each based in a different region
- Every class recorded and available on demand
- Two weekly study groups for practice and reinforcement
- A CEFR-aligned certificate of completion by Acadomia

UNIT BY UNIT

01 Bonjour, je m'appelle...

Introduce yourself to a stranger: give your first name, nationality, and home city. Use je m'appelle... / je suis... / j'habite à... and je parle un peu français. Respond to et vous ? without hesitation in a 2-turn mini-dialogue.

02 Au marché et à la boulangerie

Buy three products, ask for the price, and close the transaction. Use je voudrais [produit], s'il vous plaît, c'est combien ?, and voilà, merci !. Practice with a progressively reduced script.

03 Comment y aller ?

Ask for and understand a simple itinerary, then buy a metro ticket. Use pour aller à [lieu], s'il vous plaît ? and understand à gauche / à droite / tout droit. Confirm the directions by reformulating in a 2-turn exchange.

04 Au café, au restaurant

Place a full order, handle a mistake (ce n'est pas ce que j'ai commandé), and ask for the bill. A complete role-play with no script on the second pass. This unit goes beyond the basic ordering covered in FA0: the focus here is on managing errors and paying.

05 Chez moi

Describe your home in 3–5 sentences: name the rooms using il y a [pièce] dans mon appartement, locate them with prepositions (la cuisine est à côté du salon), and give the floor number. Answer 2 follow-up questions without a script.

06 Speed dating : Bienvenue en France !

Chain the 5 speech acts from Units 1–5 in a speed dating format: introduction, shopping, directions, ordering, and home description. Five 1–2 minute exchanges with no written support and at least one unexpected prompt per situation.

07 Ma journée, ma routine

Describe your typical day in 5–6 sentences: give the time using il est [heure], use reflexive verbs (je me lève à...), and name the relevant days of the week. Answer questions from your interlocutor without a script. This unit extends FA1–12 by adding time-telling and days of the week.

08 Ce que j'aime, ce que je déteste

Exchange preferences on food, activities, and places over 5 turns. Use the full opinion scale — j'adore / j'aime beaucoup / je n'aime pas / je déteste — ask et toi, tu aimes... ?, and react with moi aussi ! / pas moi. Close with a short monologue: 3 things you love about France.

09 Je ne me sens pas bien

Describe two symptoms and request medication at a pharmacy. Use j'ai mal à la tête / au ventre / à la gorge, j'ai de la fièvre, and vous avez quelque chose contre [symptôme] ?. Understand simple pharmacist instructions. Full role-play without a script.

10 Speed dating : Mon premier mois en France

Final consolidation of all LSF1 speech acts in free production. Five situations drawn at random from Units 1–9, each with at least one unexpected prompt, no script, and a minimum total exchange of 1 minute 30. The final assessed task of the course.
